HUNTING FOR A NAME.

The Managers Can't Decide What They Will Call Their Home.

A REFUGE FOR WOMEN IS ASSURED

Miss Basendorf's Proposition Will be Carried Into Effect.

THE DETAILS UNDER CONSIDERATION

The second public meeting for the organiration of a society to establish a permanent home for unfortunate women was held in the Third U. P. Church vesterday afternoon.

The meeting was opened in the routine manner, with Mrs. C. E. Locke in the chair, and Mrs. B. M. Sutch as secretary. Rev. J. T. McCrory, Chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization, appointed at the last meeting, stated that at their meeting they concluded it would be wise for them to take for a guide some older society engaged in the same work, as they were all novices.

The Midnight Mission of Philadelphia had been in successful operation for 21 years, and their regulations and by-laws he thought the Pittsburg society should take under consideration. One clause of the outline, which stated the membership fee should be placed at $5, called forth considerable discussion, some contending that it would debar earnest, anxious workers from enlisting in the cause. Others thought it advisable to have the initiation fee, and did not think it would prevent anyone from working, but by becoming a member of the society the privilege of voting for the officers would be accorded them.

A STRONG KICK MADE.

Mrs. Anna Armstrong entered a strong protest against the fee system, and thought the society should depend entirely upon the Heavenly Father for finances with which to conduct the home. A compromise was finally effected and $2 was accepted as the initiation fee.

The name by which the home shall be known was a fruitful source of discussion.

Among those suggested were "Bethesda

Home," "Pittsburg Refuge Home," and
"Magdaline Home," the latter meeting with considerable opposition, as it was the opin-ion of many that the name should not in any way indicate the character of the home, A suggestion was made to call the home after some benevolent lady, tor instance, "The Huntington." The suggestion to call it the "Willard Home," in honor of Miss Frances Wiliard, was received in silence.

A gentleman conversant with the same branch of work in London thought the name should by all means imply the nature of the home, for there were many forlorn women who would seek such a refuge instead of waiting to be sought, and in that vast city they aimed to have the name over the gate of every benevolent home indicate

It was finally deemed advisable to leave all details to the Board of Managers of the new society, including the appointment of the various officers. The following named persons were by unanimous consent made the Board of Managers to take all necessary steps for the incorporation of the society and secure a charter at the earliest opportunity: Rev. J. T. McCrory, J. M. Millen, H. Samson, Dr. C. K. Shaw, Rev. J. W. Sproull, J. L. Cooper, T. H. Rabe, Dr. O. W. Miller, Durbin Horne, W. B. Brickell, B. T. A. David, Samuel Hamilton, Rev. M. J. H. Prugh, Mrs. Geo. R. Lamman and Wm. Yost, Mrs. Wm. Vankirk, Mrs. D. C. Hultz, Mrs. C. E. Locke, Mrs. E. J. Brown, Mrs. Mary Hummings, Mrs. Nelson McKee, Mrs. W. J. Reid, Mrs. T. J. Leak, Mrs. Sarah Hammond, Mrs. Dr. Sterrett, Mrs. C. W. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Moreland. Mrs. Helen Myers, Mrs. Samuel Wood and Mrs. J. W. Riddle.

A sub-committee, consisting of William Yost, Rev. Mr. Beazell, Rev. Mr. Locke, Rev. Mr. Grose and Bev. Mr. Rabe, was and a number of names were signe The next meeting will be held by the Board of Managers in Hamilton's Music Hall at 2 o'clock next Tuesday. A general invitation to all interested in the work to be present was extended. The charter will be ready for signatures at that time.
